Welcome to Oppegård Public Library

Common rules for libraries in Akershus:

- Borrowing at the library is free of charge.
- You can borrow material at all the public libraries in Akershus county and return it at the county library of your choice.
- We can order books we don't have for you from other libraries.
- In order to get a library card you will have to present a valid identification and sign for acceptance of the library rules. If you choose you can get a library card valid in most Norwegian libraries.
- Most libraries require a co-signature from a parent/guardian for patrons under 15 years of age.
- The library card is personal and shall not be lent to others. You are responsible for all materials borrowed on your card.
- Notify the library of any name-change or change of address, phone number or e-mail.
- Notify your library if your card is lost or stolen and we will replace it for a small fee.
- Loan period for all books are normally four weeks. Shorter loan periods may apply for other media.
- Loans can normally be renewed online or by contacting the library.
- Fines will be charged if items are not returned by the given due date.
- You are required to pay the cost of replacement or repair of material which is lost or damaged.
- Breaches of the common rules for public libraries in Akershus could lead to a loss of borrowing privileges.

Loan periods:

Books, audio books, music and language courses:	4 weeks
Periodicals and computer games :	2 weeks
